Therefore, the parties agree that any claim or dispute arising out of, or related to this agreement or to any aspect of the school relationship, including any claim or statutory claims, shall be settled by biblically-based Christian mediation (administered by the director of the school or a pastor of Calvary Chapel San Jose). The parties agree that these methods shall be the sole remedy for any controversy or claim arising out of the school relationship or this agreement and expressly waive their right to file a lawsuit against one another in any civil court for such disputes, except to enforce a legally binding arbitration decision. The arbitrators shall issue a written opinion within a reasonable time. Each part, regardless of the outcome of the matter, agrees to bear the cost of his/her/their own arbitrator and one-half of the fees and costs of the neutral arbitrator and any other arbitration expenses.
9. We agree to maintain adequate medical insurance coverage for our children while attending CCCS.

We further understand and agree that compliance with all current and future policies, rules and regulations of CCCS is a condition of continued enrollment. Students are subject to dismissal from CCCS for student or parental violation of any current or future policies, rules or regulations of CCCS.
